

Submit your book for notice in NEW ENGLAND ANCESTORS

NEW ENGLAND ANCESTORS is pleased to list members' family history and source records publications. There is no charge for this service, but the donation of one copy of each book to the Society is required. (Some books may be selected for review in the Register, in which case a second copy will be requested.) Books will be listed in two columns — "Genealogies Recently Published" (for family histories and compiled genealogies) and "Other Books Recently Published" (for "other" types of genealogical or historical books, such as source records, town histories, guidebooks, etc.). In order to have a book listed in NEW ENGLAND ANCESTORS, you must provide the following: 1) Surname (genealogies) or state (other books); 2) Title; 3) Author(s)/editor(s)/compiler(s); 4) Place of publication; 5) Publisher/self-published; 6) Year of publication; 7) Hardcover/softcover/other; 8) Page count; 9) Specify if index, illustrations or appendixes are included; 10) Description of book in 25 words or less; 11) Contact/ordering information. To place your listing in NEW ENGLAND ANCESTORS, email magazine@nehgs.org or write NEW ENGLAND ANCESTORS, 101 Newbury Street, Boston, MA 02116-3007.

DNA STUDIES IN PROGRESS

DNA studies in progress are announced free for NEHGS members on a space-available basis. Please send your brief notice to New England Ancestors - DNA, 101 Newbury St., Boston, MA 02116-3007, email: bshaw@nehgs.org with "DNA studies in progress" in the subject line.

Baker

A Baker study is in progress at www.bakerdna.net. This study is supported by Family Tree DNA and has a large and growing group of involved people and an interesting website.

Ball

Ball families in the U.S. and United Kingdom have established the Y-DNA profile for descendants of Col. William Ball of Va. (ancestor of George Washington), Zopher Ball of Pa., John Ball of Stafford and Fairfax Cos., Va., and are working on Ball families of S.C., Mass., and Conn. See project details and contact information at www.familytreedna.com/public/Ball.

Creekmore

Creekmore, Crickmur, Crickmere and Crickmay families in the U.S.A. and United Kingdom are now focusing on Virginia and Norfolk, England. See project details and contact information at: www.familytreedna.com/public/Creekmore. Submitted by Steven C. Perkins.

Davenport

To anyone with the last name of Davenport, Dampport, Danforth, etc.: We would like you for our DNA study. Please go to www.davenportdna.com for details. We are especially interested in people born in England.

Kidd

Kidd families in the U.S.A. and United Kingdom have results from England and are awaiting results from a descendant of Thomas Kidd of Virginia. See project details and contact information at: www.familytreedna.com/public/Kidd.

Manning

For Manning, Mannin, Man(n)on families in the U.S.A. and United Kingdom: see project details and contact information at: www.familytreedna.com/public/Manning.

Sloan

The Sloan surname group DNA Study is now in its fourth year at Family Tree DNA with 21 members. Two distinct lines have been identified plus some singletons; I am hoping to find cousins. All male Sloans are invited to join this exciting project. Go to www.familytreedna.com/public/sloan, or, email: susanps@cs.com.

Southworth, etc.

A DNA project is in progress for the surnames Southworth, Southard, Southard, Suther and similar. I am seeking male participants for a surname study to prove (or disprove) lineages developed with traditional genealogical methods. This DNA project will apply twenty-first-century techniques to answer questions about common ancestors and origins. See my website at <http://home.bellsouth.net/p/pwp-wordendna>.

Worden, etc.

A DNA project is in progress for the surnames Worden, Warden, Werden, Wording, Werthen, etc. I am seeking male participants for a surname study to prove (or disprove) lineages developed with traditional genealogical methods. This DNA project will apply 21st century techniques to answer questions about common ancestors and origins. See my website at home.bellsouth.net/p/pwp-wordendna.
